The "professor," as he was called, will be at once remembered as the blind man who for for Windows is better than Whiting or Water. years has frequented the rotunda of the Capitol, with a placard suspended from his neck, on which was printed, in large letters, "Guide to the Dome," and it was a well-known fact that, although blind as a bat, he could successfully pilot visitors either to the tholus of the dome or other points of interest about the building. Arrested often for vagrancy, he was sent to the workhouse, and while there, about two years ago, married one of the depraved in-mates, named Agnes Donnelly, since when they have both been constant recipients of attention from the police force, the bride being now in the workhouse for drunkenness, and he left alone to die from rhumatism and a complication of diseases for which he generally doctored himself, using chloroform and alcohol principally. His death was not unexpected and last evening, at 7 o'clock, an inmate of the house going to his room found him dead on a for Washing Dishes and Glassware is invalufilthy pallet, his limbs distorted, and in his able. DAN RICE, the old clown, has fallen uuder his evil star, and his misfortunes will provoke no little sympathy. After quite a successful summer tour he reached Louisville about three weeks ago, rented the exposition building, and fitted it up at great expense. The first week turned out badly, and for the second the price it as well as Sapolio. Try it. of admission was reduced to fifteen and twenty five cents; but the show didn't draw As a consequence the whole concern was attached, and on Saturday last horses, canvas, and general paraphernalia were sold at auction, the cele brated blind trick horse bringing only $126. The performers, musicians and all the employees were minus their wages. Dan not having a dollar left to pay them. During the summer Dan himself, with his blind horse, &c., was travelling with another company in Canada at $1,000 per week, and that too, went up leaving him minus $26,000.
